

Want to join a volunteer Board of Directors for an exceptional organization that empowers people and strengthens our community?

We are seeking candidates to join one of the two Boards that support Causeway Work Centre, a not-for-profit organization with a staff of some 30 full- and part-time employees. Causeway Work Centre and Causeway Foundation are each recruiting members for their respective boards through this joint recruitment process.

Operating since 1977, the Causeway Work Centre transforms lives and fuels community economic development in the Ottawa region through an integrated network of innovative training and employment programs, one-on-one support, cross-sector partnerships and through its four social enterprises, Krackers Katering , Good Nature Groundskeeping , Cycle Salvation and Right Bike.

The Causeway Foundation coordinates fundraising to support the programs and services of the Causeway Work Centre, and manages the building.

We are specifically seeking experience in the following areas, but if you have other relevant experience please don't hesitate to reach out:

- Fundraising
- Marketing
- Media Relations/Communications
- Human Resources
- Government Relations
- Building maintenance and management

Meetings and time commitment:

The Board meets on the third Monday of every second month from 5-7pm at Causeway Work Centre. Meetings take place from September to June. Board members are expected to become active members of committees. The committees meet approximately 4-6 times a year, or as required.

Expectations of board members:

- Attend and participate in meetings on a regular basis, and special events when possible;
- Participate in the work of Board committees;
- Help promote Causeway's mission and vision to the community.

If you find this time commitment too much, or you would like to offer your expertise in another way:

We are also seeking volunteer mentors or committee members with expertise in any of the fields mentioned above as well as in entrepreneurship and finance.

Please submit a C.V. and your expression of interest by May 22nd to board@causewayworkcentre.org.
